

The NAHB Remodelers Council was founded in 1982 as a department of the National Association of Home Builders. The council's mission is to serve the remodeling industry and consumers by establishing a written code of ethics, quality standards and by offering information, education, and professional designation programs. The Council advocates professionalism, business and technical excellence and responsible government while representing the interests of the remodeling industry to regulatory, legislative, media, trade, and consumer groups. As the recognized authority of the professional remodeling industry, the Council promotes the opportunity for safe and decent housing for all Americans through preservation and improvement of the existing housing stock.

More than 150 NAHB affiliated state and local associations have organized Remodelers Councils. The resources of their local association and the NAHB Remodelers Council support these councils. In this partnership, the local councils, the local associations and the NAHB Remodelers Council strive to foster and develop remodeling professionalism by providing information, networking and education. As a result, Remodelers Council members develop improved business management skills and professional competencies, as well as receive strong representation of remodelor's interests at the federal, state and local levels of government.

By organizing and maintaining an active Remodelers Council you and your peers have taken the first step towards improving your business and the remodeling industry as a whole. Remodelers join the Remodelers Council to improve their business management skills, to network with peers, to perform community service and to work for the betterment of the industry. Your council's future success hinges upon its ability to successfully address these areas, satisfying existing members' expectations while enticing new members to join.
